THE HEART OF THE MATTER . . . Camper, Hart, and Smith function independently, but each relies upon the central office for guidance.

WHEN YOU'VE SEEN ONE . . . You've seen them all.

TIME . . . A time for work, a time for play, and a time for us.

WHAT'S THIS? A PRIVATE PARTY? . . . Club officers enjoy fall picnic.

INDIVIDUAL YET TOGETHER . . . Deans Arrington and Dixon await their turn at the mike.

From One Comes Many

From one unified school come three individual academic units functioning independently with distinctive characteristics.

From three distinctive halls come varied curricula impressing new ideas and facts upon the students.

From varied curricula comes opportunities to participate in extracurricular activities as well as in a number of areas of study.

From a varied life of academics and activities evolve well-rounded persons prepared for tomorrow's responsibilities.

From One Man Come Many Talents . . .

"CHEERS" . . . Mr. French often takes charge of the concession stand during basketball games.

- . . . coaching varsity and junior varsity athletics
- . . . encouraging good sportsmanship
- . . . directing school activities
- . . . developing fairness and a sense of humor through his own example
- . . . helping prepare students for their future roles as adult leaders

These many talents displayed during his 14 years at Fleming distinguish the man to whom the 1968 Colonel is dedicated, Mr. Kenneth L. French.

"NOW WAIT JUST A MINUTE - I SAW THAT." . . . Refereeing is one of Mr. French's spare time activities.

"FORMIDABLE FRENCH" . . . The fortress every club must face to get their money.

"DID HE SAY SCHEDULE 6? THERE IS NO SCHEDULE 6" . . . Mr. French tries to impress the importance of history on his students.

MUST BE INTERESTING . . . Students listen attentively to a history lecture.

“Happenings” On Campus . . .

UH-OH, SPAGETTI-OS . . . Dana Hutcherson and Lynn Kwiatkowski enjoy their meal at G.A.A.'s dinner.

PIN HIM, NEAL, PIN HIM! . . . Neal Pendleton participates in sport of wrestling.

POWER OF POSITIVE THINKING . . . Jimmy Wiggins uses spare time for studying.

HUT 2, 3, 4 . . . Marching (?) is a way of life for band members.

YOU'VE GOT TO TRY HARDER . . . Steve Amrhein and Loretta Gillespie discuss literature after class with Mrs. Gordh.

ANTICIPATION – Loretta Gillespie holds her breath as the ball goes over the net.

ANGER – “Who’s descended from a monkey?”

INQUISITIVE SQUINT – “I’m not sure what it is.”

ENJOYMENT – “I’ll fool them!”

HAPPINESS – radiates in the face of beautiful Homecoming Queen, Vicki Adkins.

PAIN – “Wish this was a VW!”

WISHING – “Only two days, but if I could fly . . . ,” Miss Snyder muses.

ASSURANCE – “60-20! This game’s in the bag!”

JOY TO THE WORLD . . . Choir entertains at Crossroads Mall for fourth consecutive year.

CHRISTMAS WAS A TIME . . . The Shylocks provided entertainment for Christmas dance sponsored by Y-Teens.

THE GREASE MONKEYS . . . participants in the Christmas play prepare for their production.

AND THE BEAT GOES ON . . . and on.

A SILENT HUSH . . . it's Christmas vacation.

Ballard Speaks To Seniors

STUFF YOURSELF KIDS . . . Seniors enjoy a beautiful meal at the Kazim Temple.

Kazim Temple . . . May 15 . . . 6:30 the class of 1968 and distinguished guests

a buffet dinner . . . fried chicken ham biscuits . . . salads strawberry shortcake

Cheryl Brown singing "Alfie"
John Burwell . . . "Moon River"
Speaker . . . Mr. Arthur Ballard
"People, Places, Things"

Finally, "The Impossible Dream"

IT'S LIKE THIS, FOLKS . . . Mr. Arthur Ballard advises the seniors how to cope with the world after high school.

SAY YOU CAN'T HEAR? . . . President of the class of '68, Butch Traylor, has a little trouble with the microphone.

ILLUSTRIOUS GUESTS . . . Mrs. Mabel Marmion and other faculty members honored the seniors with their presence.

"THIS IS THE ONLY PART OF SENIOR DAY I ENJOY." . . . Mr. Dixon, Mr. French, Mr. Beahm, and Mr. Arrington enjoy chaperoning at the breakfast.

"WOULD YOU CARE TO JOIN US?" . . . Karen Stapleton and Rhonda Martin enjoy breakfast at Bailey's.

"THINK WE CAN MAKE IT BACK TO THE SCHOOL BY 9:45?" . . . Seniors relive childhood pleasures on senior day.

"MAN THIS IS THE LIFE!" . . . Billy Cannaday takes a rest before returning to the school.

"FOR I MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN," . . . The girls' chorus sings a sentimental number during the assembly.

 and then voices joined in harmony
 Hail to thee our Alma Mater. . ."

SHE MAKES THE 300TH, COULDN'T BE TOO MANY MORE." . . . Mr. Dixon checks his list of seniors as Mr. Beahm caps Cathy Brizendine.

Capping Assembly First Of Graduation Ceremonies

MAKE IT SNAPPY . . . Junior boys help Norma Beckner into her robe during the capping assembly.

DO YOU REMEMBER THE TIME . . . Capping brought mixed emotions to both seniors and underclassmen.

WATCH YOUR STEP . . .
Danny Dillon returns to his place after putting on his cap and gown.

IS EVERYONE HERE? . . .
The senior class stands to sing the Alma Mater for the last time.

"HAVE YOU HEARD THE STORY ABOUT . . ." Reverend Clint Noble delivers the sermon to the senior class.

"PASS IT ON . . . WHEN DO WE SIT DOWN??" . . . Seniors march into the gym to begin the services.

WHO SKIPPED BACCALAUREATE? . . . Seniors listen attentively to the choir during baccalaureate services.

NEXT YEAR AT THIS TIME!
... Choir members relax after preforming at Baccalaureate.

"THERE WERE ONLY TWENTY-FIVE GRADUATES IN MY CLASS" ...
Speakers watch as seniors file into the gym.

"I'M INNOCENT" ... Vicki Adkins leads her row out of baccalaureate services.

Graduation!

I am a part of all that I have met;
 Yet all experience is an arch where-through Gleams that untravell'd world,
 whose margin fades
 For ever and for ever when I move.

That which we are, we are;
 One equal temper of heroic hearts,
 Made weak by time and fate,
 but strong in will
 To strive, to seek, to find,
 and not to yield.

—Alfred Lord Tennyson

FORWARD EVER BE OUR WATCHWORD . . . Seniors look to the future during graduation.

THE LAST LONG WALK . . . Seniors march out to begin graduation ceremonies.

UNDERSTANDING, WIT, KNOWLEDGE, AND PATIENCE . . . Three Deans and Principal watch as teenagers become young men and women.

"HERE WE HAVE SET THE BASIS FOR OUR FUTURE" . . . Valedictorian John Greer gives a farewell speech during the graduation ceremonies.

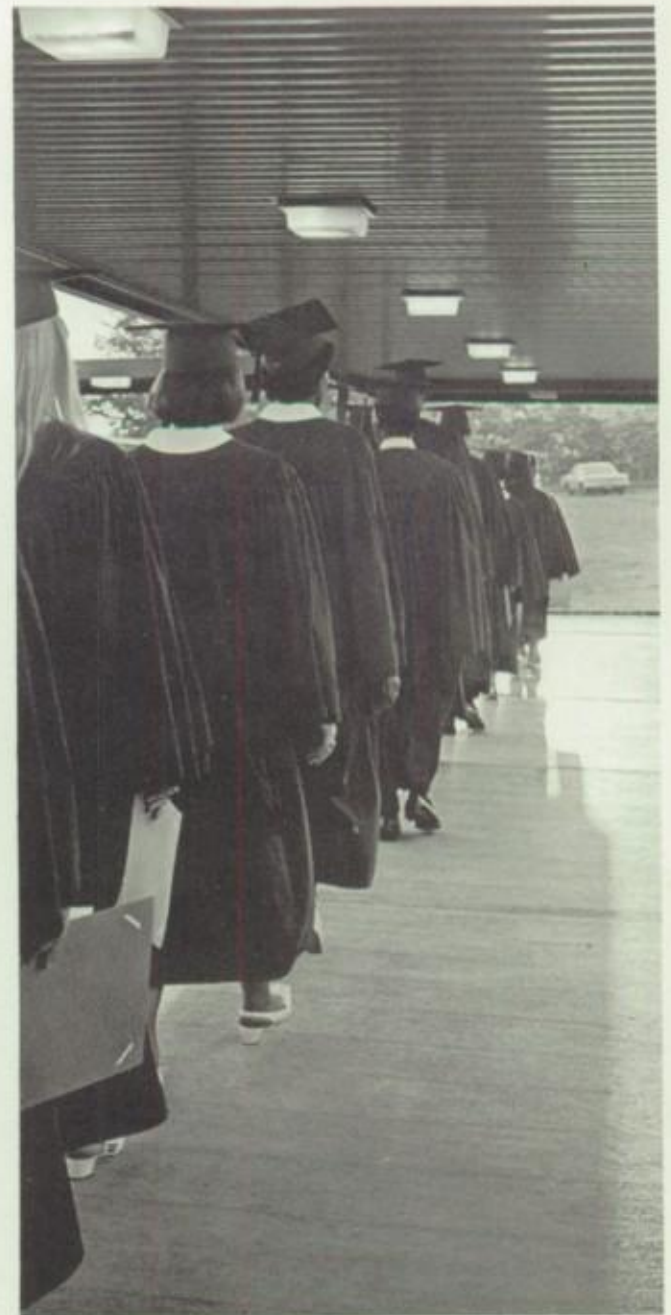

"I TRY HARDER" . . . Robert Brown, salutatorian of the 1968 graduating class, delivers his speech.

IS IT THAT BAD? . . . Margo Martin and Rhonda Martin sadly leave graduating exercises.

"LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH" . . . Choir members join voices for the last time.

IT'S ALL OVER . . . Seniors return to Hart Hall after graduation.

CHICKEN WIRE AND TOILET PAPER FOR PROM DECORATION? . . . Judy Anderson and Pam Semones unload equipment used to decorate for the prom.

Rings Come In May

THE SPIRIT OF '69 . . . Juniors provided stiff competition in pep assemblies.

THE FIRST STEP TO "SENIORDOM" . . . Receiving senior rings was a long-awaited event, for the junior class.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF BEING THEMSELVES . . . Susan Hennieger and Barry Stump seem pleased at the announcement of receiving senior rings.

Sophs Have Active Year

ARE SOPHOMORES IN THE DARK? . . . Sophomores were quick to adjust to high school life.

"I FINALLY MADE IT!" . . . Becoming high school students was a big step for sophomores.

"YOU BEGIN THE INCISION HERE . . ." Mrs. Painter instructs a sophomore biology class in the dissection of fish.

"CONGRATULATIONS." . . . Mike Kennedy and other members of the sophomore class brought many honors to the school.

SENIORITY IN PRACTICE . . . Jim Sumpter exercises his authority as a senior.

BUT YOU'LL LIKE SILAS MARNER – YOU'LL HAVE TO . . . Mrs. Marshall tries to convince her sophomore English class that they will enjoy one of the required books.

SMILE, AND THE WHOLE WORLD SMILES WITH YOU . . . This happy group of J.V. cheerleaders led the sophomore class throughout the year.

NEXT YEAR . . . Hugh Sawyer looks into the future through the new hall.

Cheerleaders Increase Squad To Seventeen

"I DON'T BELIEVE IT" . . . Cheerleaders express amazement after winning first place for the second time in the Heironimus Cheer Rally.

The Fleming Varsity Cheerleaders added something extra this year — five new cheerleaders to be exact. This put the Varsity squad at seventeen with the Junior Varsity numbering eight. Yelling "Let's go, team" and "Get that ball" are not the only things twenty-five cheerleaders do. Collecting pop bottles, sponsoring a swim party, and selling rummage, not to mention bi-weekly practices, are part of a cheerleader's busy schedule. Tension begins with the first football game and pep assembly. It mounts with the frantic plans for Homecoming. Poster parties, alumni letters, dance decorations, and a motorcade are all part of these frantic plans. The tension reaches its peak with preparation for the Heironimus Cheer Rally. For the second year in a row, the Varsity squad won the Heironimus Cheer Rally. A great reward for a year of hard work!

"WHO YOU GONNA YELL FOR?" . . . Cheerleaders encourage the stands to yell during Homecoming.

Victories Few For Colonels

Lefty McLawhorn and Dave Beckner discuss team strategy during the opening home game.

Billy Cannaday gains long yardage on a reception from McLawhorn during the Grundy game.

Triantafillis struggles for yardage against Glass with the assistance of Angress Scott.

Triantafillis eludes tacklers of Jefferson as the referee observes the play.

The 1967 Colonels of William Fleming found victory a difficult task. Succumbing to five of the powerful leaders in the state, the Blue and Gold emerged the victors in only three games. Nevertheless, the team regained lost prestige as they overcame Patrick Henry, Bristol, and Grundy.

In the two initial games of the season, the Fleming gridders lost to Southwest District power Richlands, 14-6, and yielded to forceful E.C. Glass, 34-7. In a valiant attempt to overcome the opposition, Jimmy Triantafillis, utilizing his strength and ability, scored a touchdown in each game.

In the next game of the season, a jubilant crowd watched the Colonels trounce arch-rival Patrick Henry by a 13-0 score. Carroll Brown a top sprinter in the Western District, scored for the Colonels after a thrilling punt return by Dave Beckner. Defensive and Billy Cannaday added the second touchdown when he intercepted a PH pass and streaked forty-nine yards to the end zone.

Versatile David Beckner sweeps end for long yardage against Halifax.

A host of Fleming linemen, including Pat Stephenson (52), Fred Weaver (75), and Mike Mauch (86), try to help Angress Scott (41), score a first down.

The enjoyable taste of victory did not last long, for the next four weeks brought only disappointment to the Blue and Gold. Having lost many players through injuries, the Fleming eleven fell to defeat before Andrew Lewis and Halifax. The Colonels, lacking incentive and desire, managed to score only once in the next two games as they yielded to Jefferson and George Washington of Danville. Outstanding lineman. Terry Mercer, displayed leadership for the losers by making a fine defensive tackle, adding a safety to the Colonels' statistics.

Despite previous weeks of heart-break, Fleming proved a paragon of strength in the Grundy game, the team's most impressive performance of the year. Led by fullback Dave Beckner who scored thirty points for the night, the Blue and Gold abounded in excellent individual performances. Senior end Billy Cannaday characterized the team's fine play, scoring twice on pass plays from Lefty McLawhorn. Steve Johnson tallied twelve points in a thrilling eighty yard run and a pass interception covering forty-nine yards. The offensive linemen also performed their best of the season. The Fleming score neared record heights, as the Colonels rolled to victory over the Golden Wave of Grundy, 60-20.

Tackling Mike Mauck before he receives the ball, results in a penalty against Glass.

End Season, 3-7

Before an ardent homecoming crowd, the Colonels, led by captains Fred Weaver and Dave Beckner, appear eager to hand Lane its first defeat in fifty-three games. Triantafillis scored in the first quarter to put the Colonels ahead, 7-6. As he did many times during the season, Randy Taylor utilized his talented toe successfully to add the extra point. Disappointment followed, however, as the Lane Knights stopped the Fleming surge and overwhelmed the Colonels, 37-7.

Nevertheless, the following game, an enthusiastic and determined Colonel squad mystified Virginia High of Bristol, shattering their five game winning streak on their home field. Displaying a well balanced aerial and ground attack, fine offensive strategy, and changes in personnel, the Colonels brilliantly whipped Bristol. Scoring by Cannaday and Beckner, added to the exceptional play of Mike Mauck and Lefty McLawhorn, gave the Colonels sweet victory, with a final score of 15-7.

Western District speedster, Carroll Brown scores to help the Colonel's win P.H.

Fred Weaver (75), Jerry Pritchard (31), Danny Lee (74), Arthur Pendleton (72), and Steve Johnson (20), display defensive ability as they charge a Lane runner.

Lefty McLawhorn crashes through a host of Halifax defenders as Pat Stephenson moves into help.

Determination Brings J.V. Undeclared 6-0-1 Record

The Colonel Junior Varsity Football squad finished the season tops in the district, with a remarkable 6-0-1 mark. The only blemish in the season was a 7-7 tie with George Washington of Danville. Sophomores and boys from Breckinridge and Monroe Junior High Schools comprised this year's amazing baby Colonels. A 20-0 shellacking over Halifax was the Colonels' best offensive showing, while the best defensive game was against E.C. Glass of Lynchburg.

In his three years as head Coach of the J.V.'s, Mr. Edmund Bessell has led his teams to an outstanding 17-3-3 record. He attributes this mark to the desire and determination of his boys.

Fred St. John adds a well earned two points as the Colonels whipped Danville in early season play.

A key to success is defensive rebounding. Here a host of Fleming netters fight for a rebound.

Fans Witness A Thrilling Season

The Colonels ended a hard fought season with a 7-11 record. Joe Jones, Billy Cannaday, and Don Brown led the team's effort in scoring and rebounding. Jones performed brilliantly and accounted for 298 points scored and 188 rebounds grabbed. Brown was next as he averaged approximately 13 points per game, tipping in many of his 45 offensive rebounds. Cannaday was captain of the squad and became leader in spirit and playmaking.

Throughout the season the Colonels fought bitterly for victory. On six occasions they lost by seven points or less. The best performance came against powerful E. C. Glass when Fleming slowed the pace and out maneuvered the Hill-toppers. It was in the last minute of play that Fleming was defeated, 45-41.

Trackmen Prove Their Ability

As in past years, the coaching ability of Dave Osborne has resulted in another outstanding track season. The cindermen continued to be the most successful team at Fleming. The Colonels lost only to powerhouse E. C. Glass and defending C-C champion Patrick Henry. They later swept individual and team honors in the Cosmopolitan Invitational meet to win the title of City-County champion. Adding to the teams success were the Dogwood Festival in Charlottesville and second place in the Western District.

Super-stars were numerous on the '68 team. John Burwell went to the state and won third place in the broad jump and still holds the school record in the triple jump. Carroll Brown continued to be one of the fastest sprinters in the Western District after running a 10 second 100 yard dash. Other super-stars for Fleming were; Sophomore Steve Wirt, an amazing high jumper; Mike Moore, who holds the school record for the 880; Bob Burch; Jerry Linkous; and Millard Bolden.

Play Ball!

Even though their record was only 5-13, the Fleming baseball squad did show some signs of promise this past season. With only two seniors on the squad, experience, along with lack of depth, was really the lacking factor.

Mr. Steve Richards was for the second consecutive year, head coach of the Colonel baseballers, with Mr. Edmund Bessell as assistant. On this year's squad, Lefty McLawhorn and Gary Fielder, both juniors, made the All City-County Baseball team. McLawhorn made it as a left-handed pitcher, and Fielder as an outfielder.

In an attempt to go one step further than just a "go-between" for the students and faculty members, the S.C.A. concentrated on giving each student a chance to take a greater part in his school activities. A better handbook, the Club Calendar, and more up-to-date bulletin boards exemplified their attempts to make Fleming students more aware of the many activities available to them.

Beta Club Contributes Much To School And Students

THE LINEUP . . . Old Beta Club members look on as new members are introduced in assembly.

Talks on Brazil, applying to college, and matrices, computers, and society were part of the Beta Club programs. Listening to talks were not the only things the Beta Club members did. They helped to sell programs at all home football games which is their only money-raising project. As service projects, they purchased a dictionary and stand for the new hall, twelve new lecterns, a daily paper for the library and each hall, and again sponsored the annual "spring cleaning" day. A banquet was held in early spring for all new members.

Parades, Basketball And Football Games Highlight Band Activities

Trumpets proceed down the long parade route.

One of the most glimmering sights around campus this year was the William Fleming Band. Directed by Mr. Harold Landis, the band won numerous awards for participation in such activities as the Veterans' Day parade, the Roanoke and Salem Christmas parades, the Vinton Dogwood festival, and the Winchester Appleblossom festival.

The band played at all home football games. This year's drum major was John Wilkerson. Providing music for pep assemblies and home basketball games was the pep band, a branch of the concert band.

PERFORMING at all home football games was a regular task for the Fleming Band.

HERE, THE FLEMING PEP BAND . . . plays at a Colonel home Basketball game.

THE DARK, GLOOMY STREETS . . . of Roanoke such as this one during the Yule season paved the way for the band.

BANNER GIRLS proclaim the coming of the Colonels during the Veterans Day Parade.

The Twirlers

"No leg make-up, please, girls!" replies Jane Hammond, head, to one of the many questions concerning proper dress for majorettes. This year's Fleming majorettes added sparkle and rhythm to the fine marching band. Sue Thompson, the feature twirler, thrilled the audience at football games with double-fire baton routines. Miss Dinkins aids the girls through their difficult moments. Freezing legs and long parades did not hamper the Fleming majorettes from giving their best performances as representatives of Fleming.

THIS IS THE WAY TO DO IT . . . Sharon Hackworth practices for the perfection the majorettes are noted for accomplishing.

Choir Is "The Spice Of Life" At Fleming

Each month of the year brought hard work and excitement to the choir and the choir's director, Mrs. June Webb. Hunting Court Methodist Church was the scene of the Annual Christmas Concert and the television was the telecaster of the Christmas Special presented by the choir. In March the choir gave a variety show to raise money so they could accept their invitation to sing in the Washington National Cathedral. Beautiful music and many tears were the contributions the choir gave to the Capping Assembly, Baccalaureate and Commencement.

French Students Advance In Club

I DON'T KNOW VELLA . . . French club advisor, Miss Snyder, advises Secretary, Vella South, on the minutes.

ITALIAN FOOD AT A FRENCH BANQUET . . . Maureen McKay, Donna Edwards, Winston Stephens, and Donna Waldron enjoy their spaghetti at the French Club Banquet.

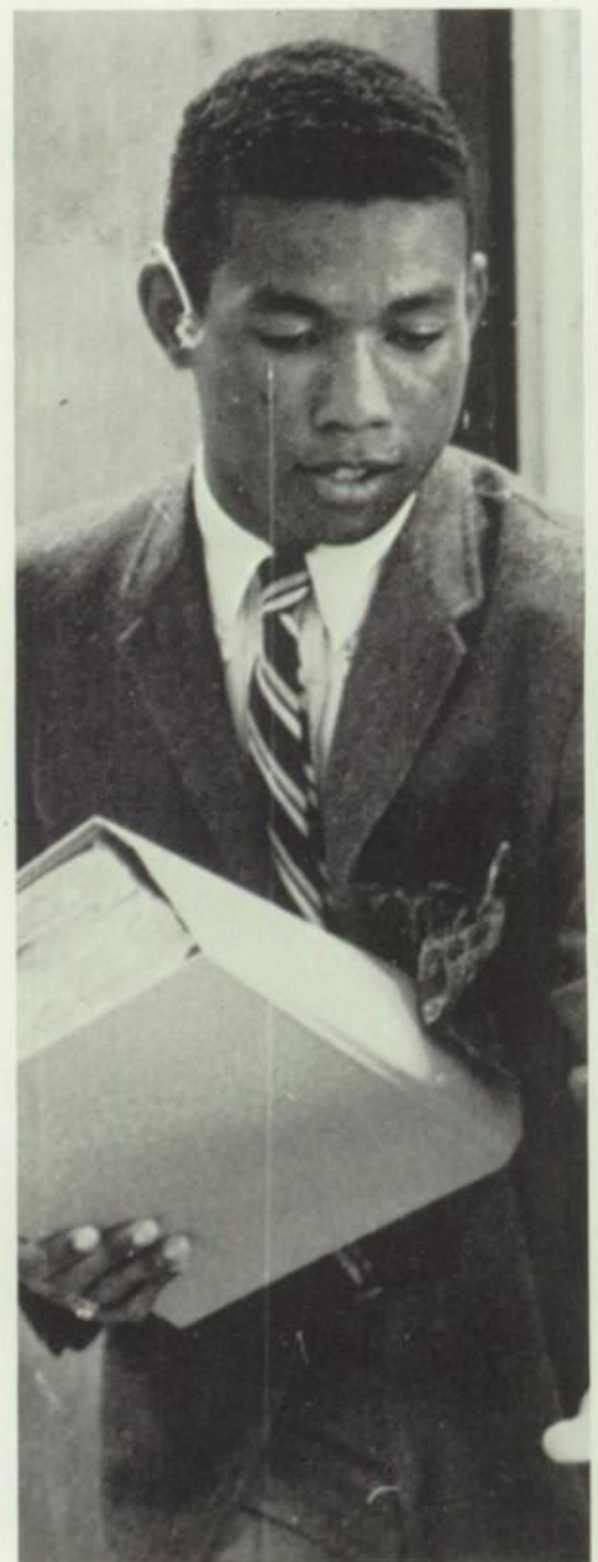

Miss Mary Ann Snyder, sponsor, and the officers of the French club, Diane Austin, Donna Edwards, Vella South, and Nancy Bryan, directed the seventy club members through the year. Club meetings were held once every two months to discuss business and to plan their activities. A highlight of the year's activities was the Spring Banquet. French entertainment followed the spaghetti dinner. Later on in the year, the garçons and jeure filles met defeat in the French-Spanish basketball game.

VOILA . . . French artist Layne Ridenour displays her work of art at the Spring Banquet.

ACCORDING TO THE RULE BOOK . . . Billy Cannaday instructs the French basketball team about basketball rules.

AND THIS IS HOW IT'S DONE . . . Mary Ayala gives last minute instructions to other area exchange students before the AFS Hootenanny.

A.F.S. Week

In addition to their many activities this year, the American Field Service Club had two exchange students. In June 1967, Cathy Dress traveled to Brazil as a summer exchange student. In August Mary Ayala arrived from Guatemala City, Guatemala to attend Fleming. Mary lived with Marva Holland and her family for the year. Christine Pakush is Fleming's delegate to be an exchange student this summer, and will host next year's student.

SOCK IT TO ME TIME! . . . During AFS fund raising week, students released inhibitions and bashed in an old car at a dime a hit.

1, 2, 3 - ALL TOGETHER NOW . . . Cathy Dress entertains at the AFS Hootenanny with a Brazilian folk song she learned last summer as an exchange student to Brazil.

THE AFS IS DOING WHAT? . . . Mike Caldwell and Angress Scott read a newspaper account of the AFS's activities.

Fleming First A.F.S. Female: Mary Ayala Godoy

Mary Ayala Godoy came to Fleming from Guatemala, Central America, where she had already attained enough education to be able to teach school there. Sponsored by the American Field Service, she came to live in America with senior Marva Holland and her family. Since the fund raising drive last year was so close, Mary split her time, spending one semester with each of the two winning homerooms in Camper. Being the first female foreign exchange student, she won many honors never before attempted by an A.F.S. student at Fleming. Her highlight for the year was being named R.O.T.C. Sweetheart by popular vote of the student body.

GOLD TASSEL AND ALL . . .
Mary receives her diploma and a handshake as her final official school action.

CONGRATULATIONS, Mary . . . Here Mary is captured in a happy moment after she has been capped by Mr. Beahm.

D.E. Club Expands

The Fleming chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America enjoyed a prosperous year. They hosted the district meeting and had an annual employee-employer banquet. Its members made several surveys on marketing.

VERY FUNNY! . . . D.E. Club members laugh it up at a meeting.

I TOLD YOU SO! . . . Mr. Treadwell makes point clear to Mr. Groves.

YOU DO IT LIKE THIS . . . Mr. Groves helps D. E. club member, Peggy Alls.

How To Succeed In Business . . .

A visit to the First National Bank and an outing to the Peaks of Otter were the highlights of the year for the Fleming Business Club. While participating in these and other events, the club members strove to reach the goal of the FBLA: To further the student's knowledge of the business world and how it operates and develop leadership, citizenship, courtesy, and dependability.

HOW MANY SPACES TO AN INCH? . . . Mrs. Billie Wright, sponsor, asks her typing class during a quiz.

PLEASE COME TO ORDER . . . President, David Slusher, asks as sponsor, Mrs. Solomon looks on.

F.T.A. Observes Teacher's Roles

Homemakers Do More Than Cook

The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America is to promote better understanding between the girls in Home Economics, and to work toward the state goal: citizenship. In working toward these goals, the members of the F.H.A.

participated in such activities as selling doughnuts, taking hikes, and having parties. Preparing a faculty tea and a mother-daughter banquet were special events of the year for the club members.

WHAT'S THIS STUFF? . . . F.H.A. members serve teachers at the tea given for them in April.

YEP! THAT'S THE WEEK ALL RIGHT . . . Posters throughout the Fleming halls proclaim F.H.A. week.

STUDENT OR SPONSOR? IT'S HARD TO TELL! . . . Math Club sponsor, Mrs. Tear, made the club a valuable experience for members.

LET'S TALK ABOUT SOMETHING INTERESTING, LIKE SQUARE ROOTS . . . Math Club meetings proved very informative for members.

WHEN IN DOUBT, USE THE FIRST DERIVATIVE . . . Mr. Johnson discusses club activities with Ken Wingo and Fred George.

Math Club Factorial

Fleming's Math Club had a busy year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Tear and Mr. Johnson. The club took several field trips during the year, and club meetings featured student speakers and films on various aspects of mathematics. To enlist new members, the Math Club held a membership drive at the junior high schools.

THAT'S IT RIGHT THERE . . . Danny Perdue, president of the Spanish Club, demonstrates his leadership qualities as he assists members in moving tables at the Christmas pageant.

SOCK IT TO IT! . . . Younger brothers and sisters of Spanish students enjoy aiming at the pinta during the Spanish banquet.

Club Goes Spanish All The Way

The William Fleming Spanish Club, one hundred and eighty members strong, attempts to further the members' knowledge of Spanish and Spanish-speaking countries. Mary Ayala, foreign exchange student from Guatemala, and Mrs. Falcone, foreign exchange teacher from Uruguay, have given the Spanish students the incentive to advance their studies in Spanish. At Christmas, the club sponsored a pageant broadcast on local television. They also sponsored a presentation of Lazarillo Ee Tormes attended by students from all over the city. In March, the Spanish Club presented Fleming's first Sadie Hawkins dance. Following the usual Sadie Hawkins tradition, the girls treated the boys. Miss Pat Patterson, sponsor of the club, chaperoned several members on a sight-seeing trip through Mexico during the summer.

COMPRENDE? . . . Mary Ayala, foreign exchange student, may be the only person who understands the presentations at the Spanish banquet.

YA'LL IS NOW MAN AND WIFE . . . Marvin Wimmer presents Jerry Jones and Iris Bocock their hitching license at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Student Art Sale Provides Money For Art Club

"IF WE VISIT RPI ON FRIDAY THEN . . ." Joyce Vaughn takes charge of a usual gathering.

An overnight trip to Richmond highlighted the Art Club's activities for the year. There, they visited the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and Richmond Professional Institute. In addition, club members made monthly trips to the Fine Arts Center to pick out paintings for each of the three halls and conducted an art sale of students' works.

"IT LOOKS LIKE A BIRD WITH A FLASHLIGHT . . ." Art Club members examine original prints from the Fine Arts Center.

UMM, FOOD! . . . Frank Wright and Dianne McLain discuss a student's oil painting.

LOOK AT THIS . . . Members price students' work in preparation for sale.

Photography Club Develops And Enlarges

WAIT A MINUTE . . . The shuttlebugs take time out to be photographed together as the camera takes the picture itself.

PERFECTION . . . At the final stage of developing the print goes through the final wash.

SMILE . . . A steady hand and good judgment are necessary to make good pictures.

HOW BIG DO YOU WANT IT? . . . Bob Cromer enlarges a picture for the annual staff.

Science Club Uses Projects To Teach

From making a field trip to WBRA — the educational T.V. system — to sending representatives to hear Dr. Libby speak at Roanoke College, the Fleming Science Club increased its scope, with the help of its sponsor, Mrs. Mary Pittman. The members had various club projects to teach and explain certain aspects of science.

IT WON'T WORK . . . Jim Wigington tries to get a projector to operate.

PLEASE, PAY ATTENTION! . . . Barry Overstreet begs his fellow Science Club members.

Red Cross Aids Community

JUST RELAX . . . Nurse instructs student preparing to give blood.

SEE! THAT WASN'T SO BAD . . . Nurse tells donor.

The goals of the Red Cross are to assist and contribute to the needs of the afflicted, and to provide opportunities for students wanting to help. The William Fleming branch of the high school Red Cross sponsored various activities in serving the community. The year's projects included giving a party in the spring for the patients at the Veteran's Hospital, delivering telephone clips in this area, and sponsoring Bloodmobile Day in April where 30 pints of blood were donated.

THAT'S NOT A BAD IDEA . . . Rodney Burford, Red Cross President, discusses activities with teacher, Mrs. Allen.

"Eager For Service . . ."

—The Y-Teens

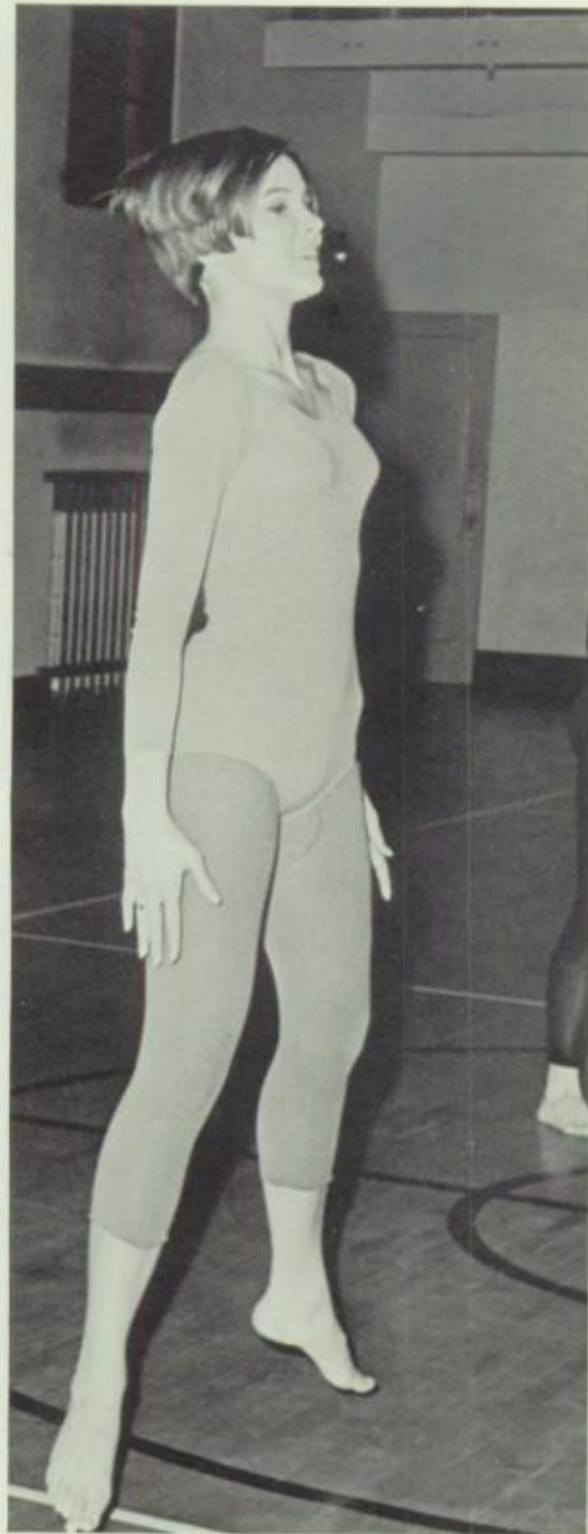

"Eager for service . . .," pledge the Y-Teens. Many services are done by these active Fleming Y-Teens. The rewards are greater than the services, however. These girls learn this lesson by planning a Christmas Dance for the school helping collect clothes for needy children, and raising money for a Y-Teen car to bring under-privileged girls to the YWCA activities. Mrs. Wingo helps the girls in their projects for the YWCA and the Y-Teens. The girls will never forget the rewards of serving others as Christians.

BEAUTIFUL . . . Brenda Baker, president, is the 1967 Christmas Dance Queen.

"WHERE'S MY PARTNER?" . . . These feet belong to couples (?) at the Christmas Dance.

FITNESS IN MIND AND BODY . . . Judy Anderson, the Fleming Inter-club Council representative, strives for this goal through modern dancing at the YWCA.

TAKING A BREATH . . . Two couples take a few moments to rest at the Christmas Dance which was sponsored by the Y-Teens.

THE LENOIR SERVE . . . FCA co-sponsor, Robert LeNoir, demonstrates his table tennis ability to John Burwell and Bill Cannaday.

The Christian Athletes

Once every Wednesday night, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes met and discussed the relationship between religion and athletics. After meetings, the boys would get together and play basketball and other sports. At these games the members would practice what they had learned in the previous lesson about faith, fair play, and honesty.

Accent Is On Responsibility In Key Club

OUR GOAL IS 9,999 CARS . . . Robert Brown, Gary Peck, and Jerry Jones discuss the Key Club carwash.

Key Club members were on the move this year. John Greer, Carter Fitzpatrick, Robert Brown, and Jerry Jones, officers of the club, planned and coordinated the club's activities. These activities included washing cars as a money-making project, helping the Y-Teens decorate for the Christmas Dance, selecting delegates to Boys State, and holding meetings every Monday. Carter Fitzpatrick and Billy Self were the delegates to the District Convention.

IT'S BEEN A GREAT YEAR . . . President, John Greer, remembers the activities of the Key Club.

YEA! YOU BET I WILL . . . Mr. Frank Welsh, sponsor, agrees to help the Y-Teens decorate for the Christmas Dance.

Screams of "Hurry up with that layout, Dark" and "Yaw didn't lose some more copy!" characterized room 409 sixth period, as the Colonel staff struggled courageously to produce the 1968 annual. With Mr. Dean Egge, advisor, assisted by Miss Annette Wenger, the staff coped with writing copy, taking pictures, drawing layouts, and meeting deadlines. Delmar's interstate workshop to teach new techniques, met at Fleming in March. On April 5 and 6, interested staffers attended SIPA, Southern Interscholastic Press Association where the Colonel received a first place rating. The work did not stop until the annuals were given out in August.

SECRET SQUAD 13! . . . Assistant editors, Christine Pakush and Nancy Garren, Pam Amrhein, copy editor, and Miss Wenger, advisor keep busy captioning pictures and correcting copy.

"I THOUGHT HE OWED $.25" . . . Brenda Thrasher, Business Manager and Cammy Spaul, assistant, check subscription cards for delinquent students.

THE RING LEADER . . . Mr. Dean Egge always radiates a smile even when deadlines are not met.

SPECIAL FILM WORKS WONDERS . . . The photography staff, Pam Ayers, editor, Bob Burch, photographer, Norma Beckner, assistant, Bob Comer, photographer, and Mary Hampton, assistant work together to develop film.

PASS THE PAGE . . . Activities editor, Debbie Cottrell and her assistant, Judy Speese review a page of club lay-out.

The 1968 Colonel Is Born

"BUT MAROON'S A GOOD COLOR . . ." George Johnson, editor-in-chief of the Colonel, expresses his opinion.

"WHY DON'T YOU GET OFF MY BACK?" . . . Lay-out staff assistants David Waldron and Robert St. John, and lay-out editor Rosemary Slaughter, combine thought on student pages.

Staff Uses New Ideas To Improve Yearbook

BUT I DON'T KNOW WHERE TO PUT A COMMA . . . Copy Editor Pam Amrhein asks English Advisor, Miss Wenger, how to write the copy for the "COLONEL".

IT'S A TENNIS COURT, ALRIGHT . . . Sports Editors Gary Peck and Delvis McCadden survey the new tennis court.

WORDS CAN'T DESCRIBE FEELINGS . . . Mr. Kenneth French humbly goes forward to accept the honor of the "COLONEL" dedication.

WHERE IS THAT EDITOR? . . . The annual staff patiently awaits Editor George Johnson's arrival.

Sabre Staff Keeps Up With Events

The Sabre staff, sponsored by Mr. Robert Lipscomb, worked hard the entire year collecting news of all school happenings. Everyday during sixth period the various staffs compiled the information and, by publishing the paper every other week, kept the student well informed. In addition to publishing the newspapers and a senior supplement at the end of the year, the staff sent representatives to S.I.P.A. where new ideas were introduced and the paper was rated.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? . . . Mr. Lipscomb, sponsor, laughs at pictures taken for the Senior Supplement.

I SEE A SMALL ERROR . . . Editor in chief, Joanne Enoch, and page editors, Fred George, Karen Wingo, and Ann Apostolou, check finished edition.

THIS LOOKS GOOD . . . Doran Vaughn and plan pictures for the paper.

I REALLY LIKE THIS . . . Joanne Enoch, editor in chief, is pleased with finished page.

PECK, PECK, PECK . . . Typists, Gail Michael and Carol Williamson, type the newspaper copy.

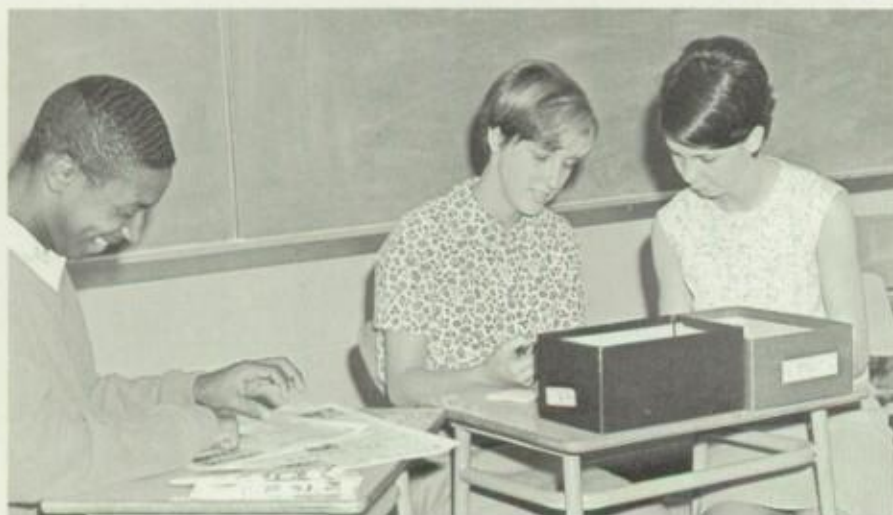

AFTER YOU . . . Wade Kendrick, Rosalind Long, and Mark Sarver find their duties as the sports staff very demanding.

HOW MUCH MONEY? . . . The Sabre business staff works to keep production costs down.

WORK!
WHAT WORK? . . .
The reporters and feature writers review their work.

THERE CAN'T BE MANY MORE . . . Jerry Pullins, Dottie Johnson, and Debbie Smith check names for circulation.

Bible Club

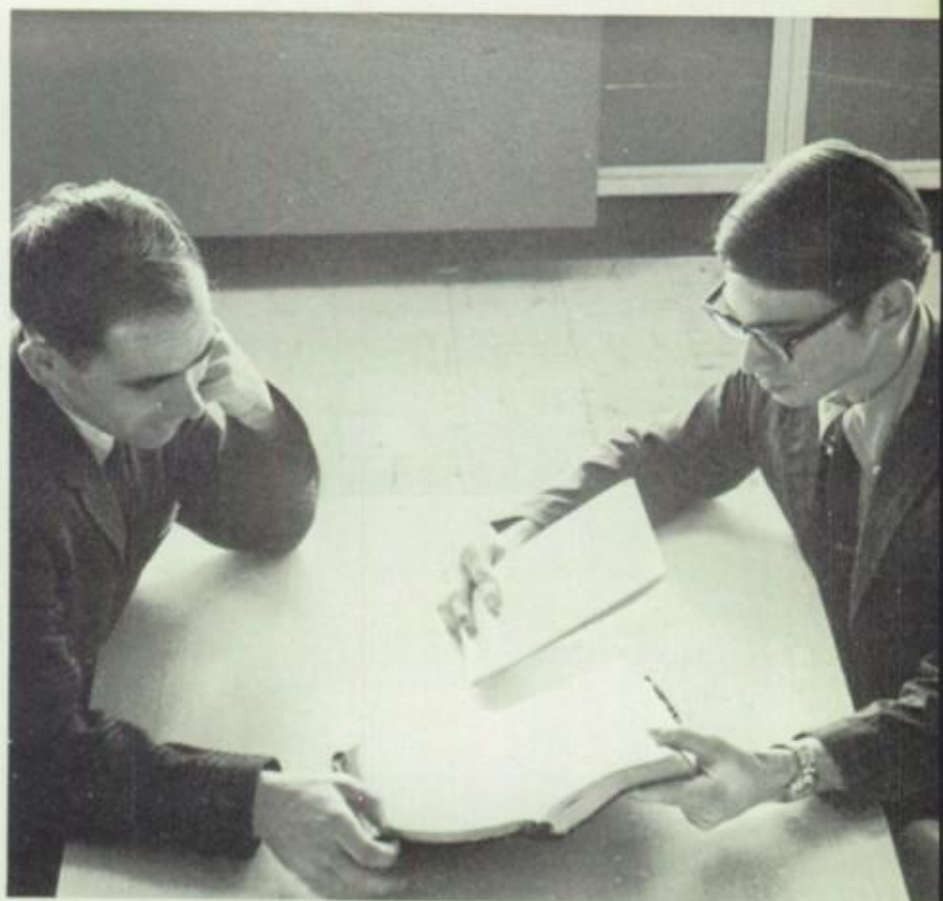

The Bible Club was added to the roster of Fleming organizations this year. Although the small club had no outline of a preceding year to build on, the nucleus of dedicated members made the first year a success. Each morning before school, members of the club met to discuss different topics. Often, local speakers spoke to the club about faith in today's world.

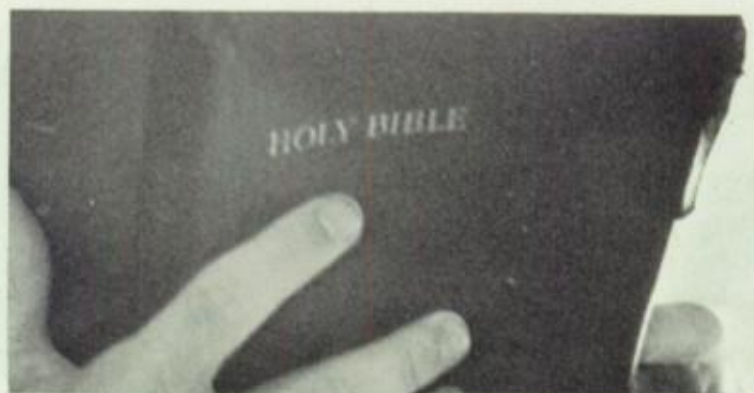

AND FURTHERMORE . . . presiding over one of the Bible Club's daily meetings, David Stewart strives to get his point across.

THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME . . . faith is the most important ingredient of the Bible Club.

RIGHT HERE IT SAYS . . . David Stewart and sponsor, Mr. Ernest Johnson, search for a particular passage in the Bible.

THE WORD OF GOD . . . is the textbook and guidance for the Bible Club.

Festival One-Act Play Goes To State

Nervous actors, Mrs. Dickinson, stage crews, scripts, costumes, props, makeup, programs, and the phrase "Break-a-leg" were all part of the plays presented by the Thespians. "Inherit the Wind", a court drama dealing with evolution was the Fall play. "A Child is Born", the traditional Christmas play was presented with three casts from the three halls. Hart Hall received the trophy for the best performance. "Antic Spring", a short one-act play was presented at Mountain View Elementary School. "A Man of Destiny", received a superior rating at the District One-Act Play Festival and was presented at the State Festival. Giving awards, airing costumes, discussing past productions and saying good-bye to graduating seniors filled the last days of a busy year.

CALM DOWN BOY! . . . Clarence Darrell (Rodney Jones) explains matters to the defendant Burt Cates (Doug Basham) in the fall play, Inherit the Wind.

THIS PICTURE . . . Mrs. Genevieve Dickinson, Thespian Sponsor, explains to her home-room what it means to be Mother of the Year.

I WILL GET IT YOUR EXCELLENCY . . . Guiessepe (Jerry Jones) tells Napoleon (Rodney Jones) and the Lieutenant (Doug Basham) of his intentions in the assembly presentations of the award winning one-act play.

IS HE FOR ALL OF US? . . . The Thief (Jerry Jones) asks of The Innkeeper (Rodney Jones), the Innkeeper's wife, (Brenda Thrasher), Leah (Cammy Spaul) and Sarah (Cathy Brizendine) in the Hart Hall version of the Christmas play.

CHRIST IS BORN... Pam Ayers portrays the Madonna in the Christmas Play Assembly.

AND THIS IS YOURS... Pam Ayers, Thespian President, presents Coach Lenoir with his "Willie" for meritorious acting in the Fall Play.

DO YOU TAKE THIS... Rodney Jones, stage manager and preacher, conducts the wedding in the Spring Play, "Our Town."

Students Gain Honors In Forensics

ONE MORE FOR MY COLLECTION... Cathy Brizendine receives another award for her public speaking achievements.

The Western District Forensic Meet was held at E. C. Glass High School this year. Fleming students entered all of the four divisions and Belinda Brugh won first place in Girls' Poetry. In other public speaking events, Terry Atwater won first place in city and zone competition sponsored by the Optimist Club. Cathy Brizendine brought more honors by winning second place in the state American Legion Oratorical contest.

AND HERE'S ANOTHER ONE... President of the Optimist Club, Mr. Dent, presents Terry Atwater with city and zone trophies he won for his speech on optimism.

ROSES ARE RED... Belinda Brugh reads poem in preparation for the Forensic Meet.
